Welcome back!
The NCC Library Staff welcomes you back for another event-filled year. Whether you are a new or returning student, staff or faculty member, be sure to stop by the library to familiarize yourself with what we have to offer.
The library offers:

- Assistance using online classes, finding sources for assignments and citing sources
- Computers for research and recreation
- Study space
- Small conference rooms
- A variety of online and print sources
- Interlibrary loan
- A fax machine: $1.00 for first page; $.50 for each additional page
- A color printer
- A scanner
- A friendly atmosphere to check your e-mail, use the computers or relax in between classes!

Fall Library Hours
Monday—Thursday 7:30am—8pm
Friday 7:30am—4:30pm
Fall hours begin September 7th. Please check our website for more information:
http://www.nwicc.edu/about/resources/library/

Get a head start on your research!
The library has recently purchased several books in the Opposing Viewpoints series. These books are extremely helpful if you are working on a persuasive speech or essay. Browsing the topics can also help you choose your paper topic.

Some titles include:

- White-Collar crime
- Media Violence
- The Culture of Beauty
- Welfare
- Cybercrime
- Teens and Credit
- Ethanol
- Affirmative Action
- Violent Children
- Teen Suicide
- Does Outsourcing harm America?
- Should vaccinations be mandatory?
- Should the Federal government bail out private industry?
- Should the drinking age be lowered?
- Should the government fund embryonic cell research?

Come check out the library’s new and improved set-up! Enjoy the nice comfy chairs, new computers and the aesthetically pleasing carpet!