Abbott to Retire from Northwest Iowa Community College

Scott Abbott, Continuing Education - Coordinator, Trade & Industry will be retiring from Northwest Iowa Community College on July 31, 2017. Abbott has been at NCC for 18 years – since July, 1999.

Abbott began his career at NCC as a Business and Industry Trainer. He served in that position for ten years. He has been in his current position since 2009.

Abbott said, “My favorite moment at NCC was playing guitar along with Robert Hoting, Welding Instructor at the annual Christmas party. Abbott’s advice to his NCC coworkers is, “Enjoy your employment at NCC, it’s a good place to work.” He continued, “It was a very difficult decision to retire at this point in my life, I will miss the daily interactions with my coworkers as I move on to the next phase of my life.”

Abbott’s plans for retirement, “I hope to spend much more time with my family and friends. I will also be doing seasonal farm work and other part time jobs.”
