Northwest Iowa Community College Recognizes Board of Trustee Members

Northwest Iowa Community College is joining with other communities throughout Iowa this spring to honor its elected school board members during Iowa School Board Recognition Month during May. This month recognizes that Iowa's volunteer school board members are providing leadership, through responsibilities ranging from strong financial stewardship to ensuring high-quality curriculum, to make sure all students are prepared for a bright future when they graduate.

Serving on the NCC Board of Trustees are:

District 1: Cynthia Porter – Hawarden, IA

District 2: Stephen Simons – Larchwood, IA

District 3: Dr. Loretta Berkland – Sibley, IA

District 4: Steve Loshman – Calumet, IA

District 5: Adam Besaw – Sheldon, IA, Vice President

District 6: Leroy Van Kekerix – Orange City, IA

District 7: Larry Hoekstra – Hull, IA, President

“These men and women volunteer countless hours of unpaid time to provide the best possible education for our students, and we want to recognize that in this community,” said Dr. Alethea Stubbe, President, Northwest Iowa Community College. “As your elected leaders, they represent you in their continuing commitment to local citizen control and decision-making for your community college. Too often the efforts of board members go unrecognized and unrewarded, so let us take this opportunity to thank them for their service.”

Stubbe continued, “Even though we are making a special effort in May to show appreciation for our college board members, we recognize their contributions reflect a year-long effort on their part. They are dedicated individuals who are committed to improving student success, always taking the long-term view of the college's future and how best to sustain the ability to fulfill NCC's mission.”

As a whole, Iowa's 15 two-year community colleges are governed by five to nine board members elected by local residents throughout the state.
