Coffee 101: The Farm to the Cup Course Offered at Northwest Iowa Community College

In this class, you will be introduced to the world of specialty coffee that explores the process of harvesting, sourcing, roasting, and brewing. Your experience will include cupping various coffees and a delectable dessert! Participants will receive a half pound of coffee of freshly roasted whole beans and will learn how to make the best possible cup at home. This session will feature the roasting of a Thanksgiving Blend. Don't miss the opportunity to enjoy the best cup of coffee in a 100 mile radius!

This class will be on Saturday, November 5 from 1-3 pm at The Lantern, 304 9th Street in Sibley, IA. Tuition: $39. Instructors and Hosts: Adam and Beth Grimm. Adam and Beth are local, family-focused entrepreneurs that have a passion for serving their community. By roasting fresh, specialty coffee from around the world, Adam and Beth provide a unique product to Northwest Iowa along with a beautiful space in which to enjoy it! Beth and Adam received much of their barista and roaster training from various coffee companies in the Twin Cities and are thrilled to be able to share their knowledge and skills with the local communities.

To register, call Northwest Iowa Community College at 712-324-5061 or 800-352-4907 and ask for Continuing Education.
