NCC Foundation to Host Dinner Theatre

The Northwest Iowa Community College Foundation will be hosting their 4th Annual Dinner Theatre on Saturday, November 6, 2010, at the Cedar Cabin in Ashton. The doors will open that night at 6 p.m. with the meal being served at 6:30 p.m. The meal will be a choice of prime rib, mushroom pork chop, or breaded shrimp, baked potato, salad, and garlic bread. The play "Shady Business" will be performed by Off, Off Broadway following the meal. Tickets are $50/person. Reservations may be made by calling the Foundation Office at 324-5061 or 800-352-4907 by October 29.

Northwest Iowa Community College is a comprehensive community college proudly serving Cherokee, Lyon, O'Brien, Osceola, and Sioux counties with Career and Technical programs, Arts & Science Transfer programs, Continuing Education and Business and Industry Training. The NCC Foundation assists the College in allowing students to achieve their goals through an aggressive scholarship program. Proceeds from the dinner theatre will support student scholarships.

"Shady Business" is set in the London underworld. It centers on Mandy and Tania, two dancers working at a club owned by Mandy's boyfriend, Big Mack, who is one of the biggest crime bosses in the area. Mandy, however, has fallen in love with another man, Gerry, a city broker she met at the club. Complications ensue when Terry, a new henchman, arrives with the weekly take from one of Mack's businesses. The money is short and the boss is on his way to collect. Now Mandy and Tania don't just have to hide Gerry, but also have to hide the missing grand and keep Mack and his musclemen - Dozer and Harry the Hammer - from finding out the truth. This is where the fun begins and what follows is a roller coaster of crazy events and mistaken identities that don't stop until the last side-splitting conclusion. The cast includes John Jinkinson, King Hickman, Angie Clark, Heith Hofmeyer, Brad Vander Pol, Laurie Nordahl, and Barry Staples. This play will be directed by King Hickman.
