Feuerstein to Retire from Northwest Iowa Community College

Kathy Feuerstein, Administrative Assistant of Institutional Advancement & Enrollment Services, will be retiring from Northwest Iowa Community College at the end of December. Feuerstein has been with NCC for 21 years - since August, 1989.

Feuerstein began her career at NCC as the Administrative Assistant to Darrell Zoch, Dean of Associate of Arts/Business & Health. She served in that position for 14 years and in 2003 she became the Administrative Assistant to Dr. Jan Snyder, Vice President of Institutional Advancement & Enrollment Services. In 2001 Feuerstein was selected to receive the NCC Outstanding Employee Award.

Feuerstein commented, "It has been an honor to be employed at Northwest Iowa Community College and to be a part of the growth that this college has experienced in the last 21 years. The 4 ½ counties of northwest Iowa are very fortunate to be accessible to affordable educational opportunities."

Feuerstein continued, "Some of the things that I would like to do when retired are to spend more time with our children and grandchildren, traveling, golfing, bowling and running at more events with my good friend."
