Retirement Open House for Dr. Bill Giddings President at Northwest Iowa Community College

Please join the faculty and staff of Northwest Iowa Community College for an open house honoring Dr. Bill Giddings, President, on May 2, 3:00-5:00pm, in the Dining Room, Building A. Dr. Giddings has decided to retire after thirty eight years of service to Community Colleges with twenty four of those years committed to Community Colleges in Iowa.

Dr. William Giddings began his role as the 8th president of Northwest Iowa Community College on July 1, 2005. Dr. Giddings was the Vice President of Educational Services at Northeast Community College in Norfolk, Nebraska, a position he held since 2004. Prior to that, he was Campus President of Central Community College in Grand Island, Nebraska. He also has educational experience at Iowa Central Community College in Fort Dodge, Iowa. Dr. Giddings holds an undergraduate degree in Mathematics, a master's degree in Education, and a doctorate in Higher Education Administration, all from Iowa State University in Ames.

If you have questions, or would like to contribute to a scholarship that will be established in his name, please contact Twyla Vogel at 712-324-5066 ext. 161 or email tvogel@nwicc.edu

The public is invited to attend the retirement open house in honor of Dr. Bill Giddings on Monday, May 2, 3:00pm - 5:00pm, in the NCC Dining Room, Building A.
