Northwest Iowa Community College and KIWA Radio Stations will Host a Free Career Exploration/Job Fair October 23

Have you lost your job? Have you been laid off? Looking for a career change? Employment opportunities and training are in this area! Northwest Iowa Community College and the KIWA Radio Stations will be hosting a free Career Exploration/Job Fair Wednesday, October 23 from 10am-2pm in Building A on the campus of NCC, Sheldon.

This event is intended to introduce prospective employees to about 30 area businesses that have employment opportunities in this region and to showcase different career training options at NCC. You can visit directly with companies that are hiring in this region by visiting their booths to find career and employment opportunities. Or, you can attend the information sessions about programs offered at NCC. You can attend any or all of the sessions free of charge.

Informational Session Schedule: Room 519H

10:00 – 10:30 Career Options/Job Seeking Skills

10:45 – 11:15 Writing a Résumé that Generates Results

11:30 – 12:00 Winning Interview Skills

NCC Admissions Team available to discuss program options.

6:00-8:00 pm Smart Start Seminar – Room 304C

Presented by Sheldon SCORE Chapter and the Small Business Development Center.

This seminar is helpful if you are looking to start your own business. Find out more about developing a business plan, implementing a marketing strategy, and establishing a financial plan.

The Career Exposition/Job Fair is FREE and open to the public. If your business would like to participate or if you want more information contact:
