Northwest Iowa Community College Offers Culture, History, Information and Community Series – Night with Teddy Roosevelt

Learning never needs to cease. Learning keeps you healthy, keeps you from getting bored, and adds richness to your life. That is why these classes have been developed to provide opportunities for continued educational growth, especially for our mature learners. The second class in this series is for all of you history buffs, “Investigation History: A Night with Teddy Roosevelt” – a look into the life of our 26th President. Politician, environmentalist, soldier, adventurer, boxer, the list of who Roosevelt was goes on and on. Let us look at this interesting man and his contributions to American society. This class will be on Thursday, September 21 from 7:00-8:00 pm at Northwest Iowa Community College, Building H, room 519. Fee for the class is $10. Coffee and cookies will be provided.

The instructor for the class will be Adam Thiner, MA, MLIS. Adam has served as a Humanities Instructor at Northwest Iowa Community College for 15 years with a specific interest in US History and political events. Come join in the CHIC program series!

To register for these classes, call Northwest Iowa Community College at 712-324-5061 or 800-352-4907 and ask for Continuing Education.
