HOUSING

6 things you need to know

- ▶ How much is housing?
$1,600-$2,300 per semester (see inside for complete details)
- ▶ Do you have single rooms?
Yes! New to NCC is Osceola Hall which is a suite style unit with four individual bedrooms.
- ▶ Are the resident halls coed?
Yes, you may have a suite next door to the opposite sex.
- ▶ When should I apply for housing?
On campus housing fills quickly so apply sometime between Thanksgiving and Christmas.
- ▶ How do I apply for housing?
You can find the housing application at bit.ly/ncc-housing. You will also need to submit a $190 housing deposit.
- ▶ How are roommates assigned?
You can indicate on your housing application if there is a specific student you want to reside with. If no indication is given, we try to put students in the same program together.

There's No Place Like Home.

Housing Amenities

Each resident has access to a variety of amenities within or adjacent to the housing complex:

- Free access to the Lifelong Learning & Recreation Center
- Study rooms
- Computer lab
- Free laundry facilities, cable, high-speed internet, and parking
- Cafeteria
- Recreation room with big screen TV and available game check-out
- Air conditioning
- Vending area
- Bike/exercise trail
- Gaming room in Osceola Hall with 8 gaming stations with 70" TVs, gaming consoles (Xbox, Playstation and Wii), public computers and connections for students to hook up personal computers and consoles (available to all housing students)
- Basement in Osceola Hall to provide safe zone during inclement weather (available to all housing students)

Your suite/apartment will be furnished with (1 per resident):

- Bed (loft)/mattress
- 3 drawer dresser
- Desk & chair
- Closet
- Dining table & chairs
- Blinds
- Full-size refrigerator
- Counter top range (Cherokee Hall)
- Electric stove (Lyon/O'Brien Hall)

Living room furniture is NOT provided.

It's worth living on campus, because you don't have to commute, you have study groups and you meet new people! I've made a lot of good friends!
